JUDGMENT
AND PROB/
COMM
ORDER

The Court asked whether there was any reason why judgment should not be pronounced. Because no sufficient cause to the contrary was shown, or appeared to the Court, the Court adjudged the defendant guilty as charged and convicted and ordered that: Pursuant to the Sentencing Reform Act of 1984, it is the judgment of the Court that the defendant, Arbi Setaghaian Sangbarani, is hereby committed on Counts 1, 2, 3, and 4 of the Indictment to the custody of the Bureau of Prisons for a term of one hundred twenty (120) months. This term consists of 120 months on Counts 1, 2, 3, and 4, all to be served concurrently.

Upon release from imprisonment, the defendant shall be placed on supervised release for a term of three (3) years. This term consists of 3 years on Count 1 and three years on each of Counts 2, 3, and 4, all such terms to run concurrently under the following terms and conditions:

1. The defendant shall comply with the rules and regulations of the United States Probation & Pretrial Services Office and Second Amended General Order 20-04.
2. The defendant shall not commit any violation of local, state, or federal law or ordinance.
3. The defendant shall refrain from any unlawful use of a controlled substance. The defendant shall submit to one drug test within 15 days of release from custody and at least two periodic drug tests thereafter, not to exceed eight tests per month, as directed by the Probation Officer.
4. During the period of community supervision, the defendant shall pay the special assessment in accordance with this judgment's orders pertaining to such payment.
5. The defendant shall cooperate in the collection of a DNA sample from the defendant.
6. The defendant shall comply with the immigration rules and regulations of the United States, and if deported from this country, either voluntarily or involuntarily, not reenter the United States illegally. The defendant is not required to report to the Probation & Pretrial Services Office while residing outside of the United States; however, within 72 hours of release from any custody or any reentry to the United States during the period of Court-ordered supervision, the defendant shall report for instructions to the United States Probation Office located at: the 300 N. Los Angeles Street, Suite 1300, Los Angeles, CA 90012-3323.
7. The defendant shall submit the defendant's person, property, house, residence, vehicle, papers, computers, cell phones, other electronic communications or data storage devices or media, email accounts, social media accounts, cloud storage accounts, or other areas under the defendant's control, to a search conducted by a United States Probation Officer or law enforcement officer. Failure to submit to a search may be grounds for revocation. The defendant shall warn any other occupants that the premises may be subject to searches pursuant to this condition. Any search pursuant to this condition will be conducted at a reasonable time and in a reasonable manner upon reasonable suspicion that the defendant has violated a condition of his supervision and that the areas to be searched contain evidence of this violation.

8. The defendant shall be limited to maintaining no more than one virtual currency wallet, and that one wallet shall be used for all virtual currency transactions. The defendant shall not obtain or open any virtual currency wallets/accounts without prior approval of the Probation Officer. All virtual currency transactions, along with any virtual currency wallet Extended Public Keys (XPUB), shall be disclosed to the Probation Officer upon request. The defendant shall be limited to only using and possessing open public blockchain virtual currencies and restricted from using privacy-based blockchain virtual currencies, unless prior approval is obtained from the Probation Officer.
9. The defendant shall comply with the Internal Revenue Service's reporting requirements as they pertain to virtual currencies and shall provide proof of having done so to the Probation Officer.
10. The defendant shall not use any software program or device designed to hide, alter, or delete information relating to his computer use, Internet activities or the files stored on his assigned computers. This includes the use of encryption, steganography, file erasing, file shredding, secure file deletion, and cache/cookie removal software without prior written approval from the United States Probation Office.

It is ordered that the defendant shall pay to the United States a special assessment of $400, which is due immediately. Any unpaid balance shall be due during the period of imprisonment, at the rate of not less than $25 per quarter, and pursuant to the Bureau of Prisons' Inmate Financial Responsibility Program.

Pursuant to Guideline § 5E1.2(a), all fines are waived as the Court finds that the defendant has established that he is unable to pay and is not likely to become able to pay any fine.

It is further ordered that the defendant surrender himself to the institution designated by the Bureau of Prisons at or before 12 noon, on July 12, 2024. In the absence of such designation, the defendant shall report on or before the same date and time, to the United States Marshal located at the First Street U.S. Courthouse 350 W. Defendant informed of his right to appeal.

Bond is exonerated upon surrender.

In addition to the special conditions of supervision imposed above, it is hereby ordered that the Standard Conditions of Probation and Supervised Release within this judgment be imposed. The Court may change the conditions of supervision, reduce or extend the period of supervision, and at any time during the supervision period or within the maximum period permitted by law, may issue a warrant and revoke supervision for a violation occurring during the supervision period.
